Legacy of SHARE

Society for Health Allied Research and Education (SHARE), a not-for-profit organisation, was founded in Hyderabad 40 years ago by a group of distinguished Indian doctors based in the USA, led by renowned cardiologist Dr. P. S. Reddy.

Established with a vision to serve the nation, SHARE championed excellence and accessible healthcare, particularly for underserved communities. This legacy continues through Share Medical Care Foundation, guided by the philosophy: "Those who have the capacity to give and those who have the need to receive."

Invitation

Dear Delegates,

The next pandemic may emerge without warning—but our preparedness cannot.

This conference brings together eminent experts, clinicians, researchers, public health professionals, and healthcare leaders to address emerging challenges in airborne and respiratory infections, epidemic intelligence, surveillance, diagnostics, infection prevention, outbreak response, and pandemic preparedness.

We will also explore the transformative potential of Artificial Intelligence and data-driven technologies in anticipating threats and strengthening response. Through science, collaboration, and innovation, we aim to turn evidence into action, intelligence into preparedness, and innovation into resilience.

I invite you to join this collective endeavour as we come together to anticipate threats, harness innovation, and strengthen our readiness for the pandemics of tomorrow.

"Anticipate Early. Respond Decisively. Build Resilience."

With Regards,
